

The image displays a dense, granular texture characteristic of terrazzo flooring. It consists of numerous small, irregularly shaped fragments of light-colored stone or marble, ranging from off-white to pale beige, embedded in a lighter, cream-colored matrix. The overall appearance is a fine, speckled pattern with a slightly uneven, natural-looking distribution of the aggregate.

TERRAZZOMANUFATUR
TM1710 Bianco Botticino 9
geschliffen