

The image shows a detailed view of a terrazzo floor. The surface is composed of a dense matrix of small, irregularly shaped stone chips. The matrix is a warm, brownish-tan color. The stone chips themselves are diverse in color, including shades of grey, white, beige, and dark brown. Some chips are smooth and rounded, while others are more angular. The overall appearance is a classic, speckled terrazzo finish.

TERRAZZOMANUFATUR
TM5706 Occhialino 35
geschliffen