

A close-up photograph of a terrazzo floor. The surface is composed of a light beige or tan matrix, densely packed with small, irregularly shaped chips of various colors. The most prominent colors are white, light pink, and reddish-brown. There are also small, dark black specks scattered throughout the matrix. The overall appearance is a classic, speckled terrazzo finish.

TERRAZZOMANUFATUR
TM4705 Rosso Verona
geschliffen