

The image displays a dense, granular terrazzo floor texture. It consists of a light beige or cream-colored matrix, likely a resin or cement, embedded with numerous small, irregularly shaped chips of various colors. The chips include shades of yellow, tan, light brown, and off-white, creating a complex, multi-toned pattern. The overall appearance is that of a polished, high-quality terrazzo surface.

TERRAZZOMANUFATUR
TM4703 Giallo Siena
geschliffen